Case No. 5:17-cv-00287-BLF

MOTION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF TO ADVANCE THE HEARING
DATE ON DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO EXCLUDE PLAINTIFFS' UNTIMELY
ADDITIONS TO THEIR RULE 26
DISCLOSURES OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE TO REOPEN

LOCAL RULE 7-11 MOTION

TO THE HONORABLE BETH LABSON FREEMAN, UNITED STATES

DISTRICT COURT JUDGE:

Defendants and Counter-Claimants Jon Handlery and Handlery Hotels, (collectively, “Defendants”), hereby file their unopposed motion for administrative relief to advance the hearing date on Defendants’ Motion to Exclude Plaintiffs’ Untimely Additions to Their Rule 26 Disclosures or in the Alternative to Reopen Discovery and For Sanctions [Dkt. 94] (“Motion to Exclude”) from January 16, 2020 to November 21, 2019. Counsel for both parties have stipulated to this hearing date, or as soon thereafter as is convenient for the Court.

9 As set forth in the Motion to Exclude (Dkt. 94), Plaintiffs JGX, Inc., Nick Bovis, Bovis
10 Foods, LLC and SMTM Technology, LLC (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) served their Amended
11 Supplemental Disclosures Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1) on October 11, 12 2019, almost two and a half years after their initial disclosures, more than two years after their
13 First Amended Complaint, and after discovery closed. These disclosures include, for the first 14 time, eight new witnesses and a new damages theory, for which there has been no fact-finding.

15        This case is progressing quickly, and the parties cannot stop simply because of Plaintiffs'
16 untimely disclosures. Defendants are scheduled to file their Motion for Summary Judgment on 17 November 4, 2019. Trial is set for April 13, 2020. Advancing the hearing date on the Motion to 18 Exclude is appropriate because the parties cannot wait until January 16, 2020 to find out if 19 Defendants will need to conduct additional depositions and written discovery based on the 20 untimely disclosures. At that point it will be too late to prepare for trial, let alone seek relief
21 through a dispositive motion. As a result, there is good cause to hear the Motion to Exclude as 22 soon as possible.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

More than two years after the pleadings were finalized, after discovery closed, and just months before trial, Plaintiffs served Amended Supplemental Disclosures pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26, disclosing for the first time eight new witnesses and a new damages theory. Defendants immediately filed their Motion to Exclude Plaintiffs' Untimely Additions to Their Rule 26 Disclosures or in the Alternative to Reopen Discovery and For Sanctions [Dkt. 94] ("Motion to Exclude"), but were not able to receive a hearing date earlier than January 16, 2020. With this motion, Defendants seek to advance the hearing date of Defendants' motion to an earlier date, ideally on November 21, 2019. If the parties are required to wait until January 16, 2020 for the Motion to Exclude to be decided, it will be too late for the parties to prepare for trial. A decision needs to be made as to whether the untimely witnesses and damage theory should be permitted. As a result, there is good cause for the Court to hear the Motion to Exclude as soon as possible. Plaintiffs' counsel has agreed not to oppose this motion for administrative relief as long as the hearing date for this motion is set three weeks from now.

II. STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

Plaintiffs served their Initial Disclosures Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1) (the "Initial Disclosures") on or about May 19, 2017. (Declaration of Matthew L. Seror in Support of Motion to Exclude, Dkt. 94-2 ("Seror Decl.") at ¶ 2, Exh. A.) The Initial Disclosures also set forth two theories of damages, one for alleged lost revenue for third party licensing and franchising deals, and one for Plaintiffs' alleged lost revenue as a result of their inability to finalize a new lease for a LEFTY O'DOUL'S restaurant and bar. (Seror Decl. at ¶ 2, Exh. A.) Defendants conducted substantial written discovery and depositions focusing on the witnesses and damages theories disclosed in the Initial Disclosures. (Seror Decl. at ¶¶ 3-5.)

Fact discovery closed on October 1, 2019, and trial is now set for April 13, 2020. (Dkt. No. 88.) Defendants are scheduled to file their Motion for Summary Judgment on November 4, 2019. (Dkt. No. 86.)

On or about October 2, 2019, Plaintiffs served Plaintiffs' Supplemental Disclosures

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1) (the “First Supplemental Disclosures”).
 2 (Seror Decl. at ¶ 6, Exh. B.) The First Supplemental Disclosures added four additional likely
 3 witnesses, but did not alter Plaintiffs’ damages theories. (Seror Decl. at ¶ 6, Exh. B.) These
 4 individuals were already known to Defendants, and Defendants had in fact deposed two of them
 5 regarding Plaintiffs’ damages claims. (Seror Decl. at ¶ 7.) Defendants also served document and
 6 testimony subpoenas on two of the other witnesses and/or their businesses. (Seror Decl. at ¶ 7.)

7 On October 11, 2019, almost two weeks after the close of discovery, Plaintiffs served the 8 Amended Supplemental Disclosures. (Seror Decl. at ¶ 8, Exh. C.) The Amended Supplemental 9 Disclosures disclosed eight additional likely witnesses and a new damages theory for “corrective 10 advertising,” based on costs Plaintiffs have allegedly been incurring since 2017. (Seror Decl. at 11 ¶ 8, Exh. C.)

12 Prior to service of the Amended Supplemental Disclosures, Defendants had no notice of 13 the newly-disclosed witnesses or damages based on “corrective advertising.” (Seror Decl. at ¶ 9.)
 14 None of the individuals named for the first time on October 11, 2019 have been deposed in this
 15 action, and Defendants have propounded no discovery addressing the corrective advertising
 16 theory of damages. (Seror Decl. at ¶ 9.)

17 Defendants’ counsel contacted the Court’s clerk to reserve the soonest available hearing
 18 date, which was January 16, 2020. (Declaration of Daniel J. Zarchy in Support of Motion for 19 Administrative Relief (“Zarchy Decl.”) at ¶ 2.) Defendants filed their Motion to Exclude on 20 October 25, 2019. (Dkt. 94.) Defendants’ counsel contacted Plaintiffs’ counsel to ask if
 21 Plaintiffs were willing to agree to an expedited hearing on the Motion to Exclude, and Plaintiffs’
 22 counsel indicated that they were willing to stipulate to a hearing in three weeks, with Plaintiffs’
 23 opposition to the Motion to Exclude due by Friday, November 8, 2019. (Zarchy Decl. at ¶ 3.)
 24 Defendants are willing to accept this arrangement if agreeable to the Court.

25 III. THERE IS GOOD CAUSE TO HEAR THE MOTION TO EXCLUDE SOON SO
 26 THAT THE PARTIES MAY PREPARE FOR TRIAL

27 This Court has the authority to alter the hearing dates of motions and generally control its 28 docket. See, e.g., Leyva v. Certified Grocers of Cal., Ltd., 593 F.2d 857, 863-64 (9th Cir. 1979)

1 (holding that a trial court may control its own docket); United States v. Fitch, 472 F.2d 548, 549
 2 n.5 (9th Cir. 1973) (“Rule 6(d), F.R.Civ.P., allows the district court discretion to shorten time.”).

3 Here, good cause exists to advance the hearing date of the Motion to Exclude because the
 4 parties need to know what evidence and damages theories are going to be permitted in trial with
 5 enough time to adequately prepare. If the Court denies the Motion to Exclude and the eight
 6 additional witnesses and/or new damages theory are permitted, Defendants will need to engage in
 7 discovery to understand and vet these belated claims. This will likely take several months, which 8 Defendants do not have.

9 It is particularly crucial for the parties to know the outcome of the Motion to Exclude on
 10 an accelerated basis because Defendants are scheduled to file their Motion for Summary
 11 Judgment on November 4, 2019. Defendants’ motion seeks summary judgment of Plaintiffs’
 12 entire case and would render trial unnecessary for Plaintiffs’ causes of action. However, if the 13 Motion to Exclude is denied and the corrective advertising damages theory is allowed to survive,
 14 it would dramatically alter the parties disposition and status less than three months before trial.
 15 An expedient adjudication of the Motion to Exclude would benefit all parties and dramatically
 16 reduce the likely prejudice that Defendants would face as a result of Plaintiffs’ untimely surprise.

17 IV. CONCLUSION

18 Because Defendants would be severely prejudiced if the Motion to Exclude is not heard
 19 until January 16, 2020, Defendants respectfully request that the Court grant this unopposed
 20 motion and advance the hearing date of the Motion to Exclude to November 21, 2019, or as soon
 21 thereafter as is reasonably practical for the Court.
